

FrontPage 2003: Advanced

Overview: Students will learn how to include more complex features of FrontPage 2003 such as frames, forms, database connections, and rotating images in their webs. They will also learn how to manage and monitor web content and make it easier for users to find information.

Prerequisites: FrontPage 2003 Introduction or equivalent knowledge.

Course Length: One Day

Lesson 1: Laying Out a Page with Frames

- Creating Frames Pages
- Adding Links to Frames Pages
- Modifying Frames
- Creating an Inline Frame

Lesson 2: Adding User Navigation Components

- Adding Search Capabilities
- Creating an Image Map
- Inserting a Link Bar
- Creating a Table of Contents

Lesson 3: Working with Forms

- Creating a Form
- Modifying Field Properties
- Sending Form Data to a File
- Sending Form Data to a Database

Lesson 4: Displaying Dynamic Content

- Sharing Content Between Pages
- Adding an Interactive Button
- Swapping Images
- Displaying Database Information on a Page
- Inserting Redirect Meta Tags
- Adding a Chart

Lesson 5: Managing Workgroup Development

- Managing Tasks
- Managing Files with Source Control
- Managing a File's Review Status
- Securing a Web

Lesson 6: Maintaining a Web Site

- Managing Web Files
- Managing Web Folders
- Analyzing a Web's Usage